The Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, unanimously approved of at a General Meeting, summoned by the High Sheriff, at Huntingdon, on the 14th Day of May.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, desire your Majesty to accept our Thanks for having graciously complied with the Wishes of your People, by removing from your Councils those Men, under whose Administration Calamities, so many and so great, have befallen your Kingdoms.

The Constitutional Principles and tried Abilities of your Majesty's present Ministers have gained them the Esteem of their Country; and we consider their Appointment as a Proof of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People.

We have seen, with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude, your Majesty's Solicitude to alleviate the Burthens of your People, by recommending to Parliament a System of Publick Economy; and satisfied that, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, that System will be carried into Effect, and the Constitution secured by eradicating every Species of undue Influence; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment, and our full Confidence that the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils will redeem the Honour, and restore the Prosperity, of all your Dominions.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, has been presented to the King by Benjamin Caldwell, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, justly impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Affection, Loyalty and steady Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, with all Humility and Reverence beg Leave to approach your Throne.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, One of your Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by his Letter to the Mayor of this Corporation, has communicated to us your Royal Will and Gracious Desire, that your faithful Subjects in the Principal Towns and Cities of this Kingdom do form themselves into Battalions and Companies of Volunteer Corps, thereby to raise a formidable Force

Force for our internal Defence, upon the most Constitutional Principles; which may enable your Majesty to make the more powerful Efforts for maintaining the Honor of your Crown, and the Public Interests Abroad.

It is with inexpressible Pleasure that we see your Majesty thus confiding in the Zeal, Spirit and Loyalty of your People; and we should ill deserve your paternal Affection and Confidence, if we did not adopt the Measures so wisely recommended, with the most cheerful Alacrity and the most lively Gratitude.

The Wisdom of this spirited and salutary Measure does Honour to your Majesty's Councils; in Obedience to which, your loyal Subjects of this Town will, with all possible Duty and Earnestness, expedite and fulfil your gracious Intentions.

We seize with Pleasure this Opportunity to express to your Majesty the high Hopes we entertain from the great and distinguished Abilities of your Majesty's Ministers, and the Confidence we place in their active Zeal for your Service, and in the Wisdom and Vigour of their Measures.

The peculiar Exigencies of the Times demand every Exertion; and we are happy to assure your Majesty, that our Zeal and Loyalty keep Pace with them. Happy are we likewise to view the pleasing Prospect of that Unanimity so necessary to give them Stability and Firmness; and happy shall we be to see these Nations again shine forth with that Lustre, which has distinguished them for Ages past. Though surrounded by many and powerful Enemies, your loyal People here are unanimous to repel them, and trust the Giver of all Victory will crown your Majesty's Arms with deserved Success, and enable your Majesty to perfect the Wishes of your Heart, and to procure to your Empire the Blessing of a permanent and honorable Peace.

Long may your Majesty reign the Guardian of an united People; long may those benevolent Beams shine forth, which have distinguished your Royal House, and are so happily descriptive in yourself, whose every Endeavour is to conciliate the Affections and attain the Confidence of your faithful Subjects.

In the Name, and by the Desire, of the Gentry, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of Liverpool, assembled in the Town Hall, this 14th Day of May, 1782,
Glo. Cope, Mayor, and Chairman of the Meeting.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses, of the Borough of New Windsor, has been presented to the King by Pen-nikton Powney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses, of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

WE beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the Globe, more particularly for the late signal Victory obtained over the Fleets of your Enemies in the West Indies.

Whilst every Part of your Majesty's Dominions partake of the general Joy on this great and happy Event, we, who from our Situation see daily Proofs of your Majesty's tender Regard for your People, cannot but feel particular Satisfaction therein.

We assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part to add to the internal Strength and Security of the Country; and we trust, that by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, your Majesty may be enabled to procure a lasting and an honourable Peace.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and glorious over a brave, united, and free People.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council Chamber, this 23d Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty two.

Jo. Bonding, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Freeholders, Traders and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Thanks, amidst the general Acclamations, for the total Change in your Majesty's Ministers, and for selecting those whose great and distinguished Abilities are equal to the arduous Task.

Anxious for a Reconciliation with America, we have now the pleasing Prospect that such a desirable Object may be soon accomplished, and our languishing Commerce again be restored to its former State: This, with the excellent Example of Economy set us by your Majesty, joined with the united Efforts of your People, will enable us to support a War against our combined Enemies, until the Blessings of a general Peace can be restored with Safety and Honour to this Kingdom.

Once more we beg Leave to repeat our sincere Assurances of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, and our ardent Wishes for the Success of those Plans which your Majesty's Councils may form for recovering our ancient envied and happy Situation.

CAPTAIN Courtney, of His Majesty's Ship the Eurydice, arrived this Morning with Dispatches from Admiral Sir George Brydges Rodney, Bart. K. B. and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships at the Leeward Islands; and also with a Letter from Sir James Wallace, Captain of His Majesty's Ship the Warrior, (whom he fell in with in His Passage) to Mr. Stephens; of which the following are Copies:

Formidable, at Sea, April 20, 1782.

S I R,

SINCE my last Dispatches of the 14th Instant, sent by Lord Cranston, in His Majesty's Ship Andromache, I must desire you will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that the Fleet under my Command, in their Way to reconnoitre the Bays of Basse-terre, St. Christopher's, and St. Eustatius, and observe if the Enemy's Fleet had attempted to shelter themselves in those Bays, we were becalmed for Three Days under the Island of Guadaloupe, in which Time we were employed in repairing the shattered Condition of the Ships under my Command.

The Moment we had a Breeze, I dispatched Prigates to St. Christopher's and St. Eustatius. In the latter Road, instead of the vast Crowd of Ships that used to be anchored, there were only Two small Schooners. At St. Christopher's, none but Armed Ships. Being, by this, convinced, that the Enemy's defeated Fleet were gone to Leeward, I dispatched Rear-Admiral Sir Samuel Hood, (whose Division having been in the Rear on the Day of Battle, had received much less Damage than the Van or Center) to proceed, with all the Sail they could make, to the West End of St. Domingo, in Hopes that he might pick up some of the stragling disabled Ships of the Enemy; and am now following myself, with the Remainder of the Fleet, to join him off Cape Tiberoon.

It is with great Satisfaction I acquaint their Lordships, that the Enemy's Battering Cannon, Travelling Carriages, and Train of Artillery, are in the Ships captured, which are not only a Loss to the Enemy, but may be of the greatest Service in the Island of Jamaica.

Inclosed I send Duplicates of my Dispatches by the Andromache, and have the Honor to be, &c.

G. B. RODNEY.

Philip Stephens, Esq;

Warrior, at Sea, April 22, 1782.

S I R,

BE pleased to inform their Lordships, That on the 18th Instant, at Two P. M. Sir Samuel Hood made Sail from the Fleet, with Ten Sail of the Line, a Frigate, and Fireship. On the 19th, at Six A. M. saw Five Sail in the Passage of Mona. At Half past Six A. M. the Admiral made a general Signal for Chace. At Two P. M. some of our Ships came up with Two French Line of Battle Ships, and a Frigate; after some Action both the Line of Battle Ships and Frigate struck. We continued our Chace after another Frigate, which escaped us in the Night, by which Means we separated. I am, &c.

J. A. WALLACE.

Philip Stephens, Esq;

Caserta, April 30. On Friday last, at Half past Eight o'Clock in the Morning, the Queen of Naples was safely delivered of a Princess at this Palace, and both her Majesty and the young Princess are as well as can be expected.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS many Seamen have, from Time to Time, inconsiderately deserted His Majesty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belonged to, as they could find Opportunity for so doing, or, having been put on Shore Sick from His Majesty's Ships, either into Hospitals or Sick Quarters, have made so ill a Return to the Care taken for their Healths as to desert from His Majesty's Service, when so far recovered as to be able to withdraw themselves from the said Hospitals or Sick Quarters; for which Crimes they have incurred the Loss of their Wages, and are punishable with Death by a Court Martial: But my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute such Desertion into a Rashness which most of them soon repent of, and believing that they would return to their Ships, were it not from Apprehensions of Punishment; in order therefore to remove such Apprehensions, and encourage them to return to their Duty, there Lordships do hereby declare, That if any Persons who have deserted as aforesaid shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, return to the Ships to which they did belong, or, in case those Ships are gone Abroad, enter themselves on Board some other of His Majesty's Ships, they shall not be punished in any Manner whatsoever, on Account of the Crimes they have committed in withdrawing themselves from His Majesty's Service as aforesaid, excepting such as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And, as a further Encouragement, their Lordships are pleased to declare, that such as shall so return shall have their R's taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they respectively deserted; but their Lordships do also think fit to declare, that all Persons under the above mentioned Circumstances, who do not make a proper Use of the Indulgence hereby offered them, will be strictly sought after, and, (in case they are apprehended) brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Divisions of His Majesty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that such Instance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour; My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehensions of the Punishment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, that such of the said Deserters as shall surrender themselves at any of the aforesaid Divisions at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majesty's Free Pardon.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended and are now in Goal or Military Custody, their Lordships do hereby further give Notice, that His Majesty's Free Pardon will be extended to them also, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at any of the Marine Head-Quarters.

And any Marine who may desert after this Public Notice of His Majesty's most gracious Intentions, will not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.
